Stay Powered Up, Always

EDEN is the ultimate 2.5kWh mobile power station, crafted for the rigorous demands of the film and TV industry. Offering both AC and DC power options, this powerhouse ensures your production stays uninterrupted, no matter where you are. With its rugged aluminum construction and IP65 rating, EDEN delivers reliable, safe power for all your on-set needs.

Charge Fast, Create More

Cut down on downtime with EDEN's rapid recharging capabilities. Fully charge in 4 hours using a standard AC outlet or opt for eco-friendly solar charging when you're off the grid. Maximize your creative time without the constant worry of losing power.

Power Anything, Anywhere

Featuring two AC outlets and four USB-C ports, EDEN keeps all your essential devices running smoothly, from lights and cameras to craft and catering. Its lightweight design, practical handles, and silent operation make it perfect for any environment, from production sets to rugged outdoor locations. The large 3.3" color screen provides real-time diagnostics, so you're always in control.

Never Miss a Beat

EDEN functions as a seamless uninterruptible power supply (UPS), protecting your sensitive equipment from power outages. Whether you're shooting a critical scene or hosting an event, EDEN ensures your power flow remains uninterrupted, shifting smoothly from grid to battery power in an instant.
